

For saith God, if My people will not be a desperate people, oh saith God, I'll find a desperate people, saith God. And oh, saith God, the day is coming when this nation -- there shall be a remnant of My people, that shall be desperate, of their own will, saith God. I'm not looking for a people who are desperate because of their situation. I'm not looking for a people who are desperate because of their circumstance. I'm looking for a people who are desperate because they love Me, because they want Me, because they seek My face, saith God. I'm looking for a hungry heart. I'm looking for souls that are hungry for Me and that are not satisfied. Saith God, I'm looking for a church that is not satisfied with the church of yesterday. I'm looking for a church that's not satisfied with the church of today. I'm looking for a people who are not satisfied with the way their government is, with the way that their neighborhood and their community or their family is. I'm looking for a church that's not content, or not just satisfied, but is content to just seek my face in ALL that they say and do, with all their heart, and with all their life, saith God. I am looking for that people saith God. Will you be a part of that people? saith the Lord.

That people will I reveal My glory to, that people will hear My voice. That people will know and hearken unto My voice, saith the Lord, the hungry and the desperate. Those that say, Lord I'm not satisfied, I want to grow, I want to do more, I want to go further in You, I want to go deeper in Your kingdom. Oh, I want to get all the baggage out of the way. I want to walk in the fullness of Your kingdom.
