

Painted Sermon – Life

By Pastor Marvin R. Barham

Life – No man can truly find his life unless he first lay it down. For one to think that he or she could keep it or give it of their own limited ability is a farce. Can one really save his own life? For is life but a breath away from death if not eternal. Could there be anything more precious to life than eternity? Would that riches, fame, of even happiness bring eternal life and health to the soul. Many have sought to satisfy this need of the soul with many things only to discover the revelation that there is but one fountain from which true life springs forth, Jesus Christ.

He is the Alpha and Omega, the one who is, was, and is to come. There is none like Him. He is our priest, prophet, He is our peace, He is my Lord. Without Him there is no good for He is goodness. He is my King. He is the King of Kings. He is the Rock of my salvation, resurrection life, the bread of life, the lamb that was slain for my sin. In Him I live and breath. For He is the way, He is truth, He is life. Only through Him is there hope for a lost and dieing world. In darkness He is the light, the judge, the open door to relationship with the creator of heaven and earth. He is victory over sin and death. There is no one greater than He. He is the great I AM, the very Word of God, the bright and morning star. He is the lover of my soul. He is my beloved Jesus.
